Flex Tuition Assistance

The Waldorf School of Princeton makes every effort to ensure that any student, regardless of a family's financial ability, may receive a Waldorf Education. Awards are based on financial need. All outgoing expenses will be considered in the calculation of a family's Flex Tuition Assistance, including obligations to pay for siblings' education.

The Flex Tuition Assistance application is available for all Grade School students. It is also available for Early Childhood students who will be 5 by September 1, 2023 and enrolling in the 5 Full Day program. To apply, complete a financial aid application at www.TADS.com.

Multi-Student Discount

Families with more than one enrolled child may receive a Multi-Student Discount of 5 percent for the second child, 10 percent for the third child, etc., applied against the youngest children's tuition. The Multi-Student Discount cannot be combined with Flex Tuition Assistance. Families with more than three children, please see Tuition Cap below.

Family Tuition Cap

Tuition will be capped at $63,140 for families of three or more children enrolled at WSP in Early Childhood through Grade 8. The cap applies to tuition only, and does not include materials fees, education support, payment processing fees, or any other expenses.

Additional Fees

In addition to the tuition and fees above, and our standard application fees (Early Childhood - $25, Grade School - $50), there may be processing fees and/or tuition insurance associated with your choice of payment method and schedule.
