Flex Tuition Assistance

The Waldorf School of Princeton makes every effort to ensure that any student, regardless of a family's financial ability, may receive a Waldorf Education. Flex tuition assistance is available for Grade School students only. Awards are based on financial need. All outgoing expenses will be considered in the calculation of a family's Flex Tuition Assistance, including obligations to pay for siblings' education. To apply, complete an application at www.TADS.com.

Multi-Student Discount

Families with more than one enrolled child receive a Multi-Student Discount. A sibling discount of 5 percent for the second child, 10 percent for the third child, etc., will be applied to the tuition. Families with more than three children, please see Tuition Cap below. Discounts are applied against the youngest children's tuition. The Multi-Student Discount cannot be combined with Flex Tuition Assistance.

Family Tuition Cap

Tuition will be capped at $57,400 for families of three or more children enrolled at WSP in Early Childhood through Grade 8. The cap applies to tuition only, and does not include materials fees, education support, payment processing fees, or any other expenses.

Additional Fees

In addition to the tuition and fees above, and our standard application fees (Early Childhood - $25, Grade School - $50), there may be processing fees and/or tuition insurance associated with your choice of payment method and schedule.
